

1. This open-toe espadrille is constructed of a natural bamboo-type weave, reminiscent of an oriental summer breeze. The neutral beige-tone color provides the perfect finishing touch to any warm-weather outfit. The 1-inch cushioned heel provides comfort while adding just enough height for a sexy leg lift. Slip on a pair for a day or evening walk with the security of knowing the closed back will never slide off your feet.
2. This snake-embossed black leather evening bag is perfect for a classy night on the town. The sterling silver buckle and ornamental clasp add a touch of understated sophistication. Yet with a fully adjustable, add-on strap, this purse is fully versatile and will adapt just as well to a corporate daytime environment. Morning, noon or night, there's no need to switch. This handbag adjusts to fit your many needs and moods.
3. The perfect alternative to the "little black dress," this dark heather gray sheath screams sophisticate. While sensuously sleeveless, the wide shoulder straps allow for normal undergarments and the button detailing adds a classy finishing touch. The elongated waistline slims the torso, providing a leaner line, while the flounced hemline exudes flirtatiousness à la Marilyn Monroe. Wrap the accompanying hot pink, lightweight scarf around your neck to brighten your skin tone and liven up the sheath's tonal sedateness.
