

Candy Cane

Classic mint taken to a new level. Made to smell like a subtler, less sweet version of the classic peppermint candy. This fragrance is stimulating and exciting without being overpowering. It's a scent that will energize your mind and rejuvenate your soul! Perfect for use in bath and body products.

Vanilla Sandalwood

There's something about the smell of Vanilla that brings to mind the innocent pleasures of childhood. But there is nothing innocent about this fragrance! It's a sensuous assault on all your senses! While the strong notes of Vanilla are as sweet, rich and creamy as they should be, their purity is complimented by the sexy scent of West Indian Sandalwood. The end result is a fabulous, and rather intoxicating blend, provocative enough to make your toes start to curl!

Wisteria

This lovely bold scent will trick your nose into thinking that you're holding a freshly cut bouquet of flowers. Created from a floral mixture of blue Hyacinth, white Lilac and sweet Wisteria, this strong fragrance is long-lasting and invigorating. Try blending with a touch of Vanilla for a beautiful, creamy floral aroma. This scent is also wonderful for ultra-feminine soaps and lotions. Add sticks of incense made of Wisteria to complete a gift basket.

Botanical Garden

Inspired by Bergamot, a small tree originally from Asia, this uplifting scent has dominant fruit and warm floral scents. It's a light, subtly spicy fragrance enhanced with a splash of refreshing mint. An invigorating aroma that will help soothe away the tensions and worries of your day. Great for use in lotions and body gels.

Serengeti Sunset

This sultry scent speaks of sophistication, romance and elegance. It's a surprisingly light and warm fragrance made from a perfect blend of exotic flowers, sweet Papaya, juicy Pomegranate, Vanilla, spices, and touched with a hint of seductive musk. Its understated scent makes it a powerful and subtly racy fragrance that is good for both day and evening use.

Peppercorn

This fragrance is a pleasant surprise considering that the name implies the sneeze-inducing, pungent odor of a seasoning many of us use. It's a perfect blend of spicy peppercorn, cool clove, and tart citrus bergamot. Strong as a concentrate, this unique scent becomes sweeter in a candle. Try using it as an incense room freshener to eliminate unpleasant odors, or as a pick-me-up.

Sugar Cookie

Bring the smell of freshly baked pastries to your home or office without slaving over a hot oven. This fragrance is sweet and buttery and smells just like a batch of warm, homemade sugar cookies. Absolutely delicious!

Tuscan Cypress

Inspired by the energizing smells of nature in Tuscan, Italy, this distinctive fragrance is exotic and outdoorsy. It's a scent that is clean and natural, just like a pile of freshly chopped cedar soaked by an early morning summer rain. The smell of mixed evergreens is warmed by a sprinkle of spice to make a rustic fragrance that will appeal to both men and women.

Seventh Heaven

Use this fragrance in candles to create a unique and intense sensory experience. This unconventional scent is created primarily from a combination of fresh floral smells enhanced by the subtler scents of sweet fruits. Undertones of amber add a slight pine-resin aroma to make an oil that's refreshing and sensuous.

Country Apple Type

In any other fragrance, undertones of musk would never be considered sweet. But in this oil, the barely detectable smell of musk comes across as more wholesome than sexy. The most dominant notes in this scent are those of crisp Cortland apples, known for their sweet-smelling white flesh and tart taste. Reinforcing this juicy smell is the uplifting aroma of apple blossoms and the light, airy scent of jasmine buds. The end result is a stimulating, healthy fragrant oil perfect for use in any bath and body products.

Strawberry

This scent is almost indistinguishable from the real thing! It's like having a bowl of freshly picked, juicy, red strawberries with you everywhere you go. This fragrance is succulent enough to make your mouth water. The ripe, natural scent of strawberries makes deliciously divine lotions. And for you incense makers. Don't miss out on a chance to make your rooms smell like fresh berry gardens. Yummy!

Passion Melon

Enjoy the smell of the tropics with this skin-safe oil that's good for soaps and lotions. The top notes of this mellow scent are the juicy smells of Passion Melon, a cousin to the egg-shaped Passion Fruit. Passion Melon has a lighter scent than its cousin, but shares the same unusual aroma that is similar to a combination of black currants, watermelon and coconut. Enhancing the lingering notes of the melon are the sweet smells of ripe fig and the exotic aromas of black berries from a myrtle shrub. This fragrance smells natural and luscious without the syrupy type of sweetness that sticks to the back of your throat.

Dark Knights

This sumptuous scent is refined femininity with a raw kick of plain old sexiness! It's an alluring fragrance created from a blend of intensely rich-smelling Oriental flora accented by deep, earthy wood tones and spices. This captivating oil is perfect for use as a room fragrance. Or try using it in soaps and body lotions so that no matter what your day brings, you'll always be in touch with your inner, wildly sensuous woman.

Sweet Pea Type

A breathtaking spring-fresh scent! This vivacious aroma captures the essence of country garden freshness. It's a simple fragrance that delicately balances the wholesome smells of sweet peas with the light aroma of summer melon and delicately perfumed Lily of the Valley. Rounding out this wonderful fragrance are the inspiring notes of a floral medley. This oil is charming and romantic, and perfect for use in candles and body products.

Whipped Cream

A deliciously light and creamy scent of fluffy white whipped milk, subtly enhanced with the sweetness of Vanilla. Try mixing it with Southern Pecan Pie fragrant oil for a truly decadent sensory experience, without the unwanted calories!

Pennies for Heaven

This appealing fragrance is very feminine and soft. The pure floral top notes on its own would make this scent more innocent than flirty. But the slightest suggestion of musk undertones adds a hint of sensuality to make a fragrance that's intriguing and romantic. Perfect for use in body gels!

Tibetan Black Tea

If you're looking for a warm, elegant masculine scent, look no further. This robust, spicy fragrance is made from the slightly smoky smelling Tibetan Black Tea intensified by the woody base notes of dry coniferous trees. Welcome wisps of delicate white floral and herbal notes make this earthy scent mystical and exotic. This scent is a premium choice for incense. It's also great for men's cologne.

Sunflowers

Inspired by Elizabeth Arden's Sunflowers, this duplicate scent is the closest you'll get without purchasing the real thing. This sunny blend of fruit and floral fragrances also carries strong tones of fresh roasted sunflowers. It's an oil that works great in soaps and other bath products.

Fuzzy Peach

This mouthwatering fragrance has captured the finest essence of the sweetest, most succulent, freshly picked peach. This delicious scent is a peach-lovers delight! Smells heavenly when used in candles or in body gels.

Rustic Rose

This ultra-feminine, romantic rose scent is a classic! Smells like a true living rose. The pure rose tones are prominent but are complimented by hints of clear, crisp carnation and traditional wildflower aromas. It's an elegant and dainty fragrance perfect for a woman proud of the softer side of her femininity.

Southern Pecan Pie

A fragrance that smells as scrumptious as it sounds! It's an amazing duplicate of the mouthwatering classic dessert of the American South. You can almost taste the creamy butter, Georgia pecans and real whipped cream. It's a rich, super-sweet aroma not for the faint-hearted. Try it, if you dare!

Cherry Cobbler

A sweet cherry aroma combined with the appetizing smell of bona fide freshly baked double-crust pastry. Enhanced with faint notes of vanilla and a bit of cinnamon. Try this fragrance in a candle and burn it during small parties to help create a warm, cozy atmosphere.

Sex on the Beach

A festive mix reminiscent of the tropics and, of course, the popular drink! Made from the smells of creamy coconut, bold pineapple, fresh honeydew melon touched with a splash of tart cranberry. This is a fun fragrance perfect for making hand-dipped incense sticks.

Cinnamon

This is a sweet, yet spicy, scent reminiscent of those little red heart-shaped candies so popular around Valentine's Day. This fragrance is excellent for use in candles and incense. Or try mixing it with Fresh Brewed Coffee fragrant oil for a truly unique scent.

Hawaiian Pineapple

Use this oil in a candle to create your own little tropical haven, even if it's a raging blizzard outside. Or put this oil in soap. It's a perfect winter pick-me-up scent! Smells just like a delectable, juicy pineapple straight from the shores of the islands of Hawaii. Aloha!
